Dear Mr Hoxha,

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks for your good wishes on the occasion of the Bundeskriminalamt's 75th anniversary.

Since its establishment, the Bundeskriminalamt has been tasked with protecting people in Germany, upholding our liberal democratic constitutional order, enhancing resilience in society and bolstering public trust in security agencies over the long term. We are very conscious of these responsibilities, particularly in view of future challenges.

The security landscape has changed dramatically in recent years. Domestic and international security are increasingly intertwined. Criminal phenomena are evolving rapidly, becoming increasingly global and technically sophisticated, not least against the backdrop of our increasingly digital world and the adoption of artificial intelligence.

In such times, it is important that we can rely on the support of our partners. I would like to express my gratitude for your ongoing cooperation and sincerely hope that we can maintain and further build on this spirit of mutual assistance in the future.

Best regards,

Holger Münch
